SPORTS

DIAMOND HEADS ENTERTAIN

That athletic club known as the Diamond Heads certainly know how to entertain, and the links they gave last evening will long be remembered by those who were fortunate enough to be on hand. There were no ladies on hand to mar the good time and the boys went into the merrymaking full tilt.

At least 150 good sports were on hand to participate in the many good things that the Diamonds had to offer in the way of refreshments, tumbling, cards and every odd thing that goes to make up a good time.

There was just enough on tap to keep everyone in a good humor and the whole of the 150 present were smiles.

Some of the stunts introduced were the real thing and brought down the house. The cock fight between Dave Sherwood and George Clark was very amusing and Clark is now the champion cock of the club. Al Moore's No. 44 Fourth St., New York, story was good and Al made a bit. Jimmy Britt and Bat Nelson went three rounds to a draw amongst the wildest excitement. Song, dance and story kept the boys well amused until a late hour, when the good time broke up and all took their departure, branding the affair one of the best that has been held in Honolulu in many a day.

The next time that the Diamond Heads give a jinks the bunch will all get in line to receive a bid.

Following is the program that was rendered:

Instrumental Selection..... D. H. Allen, Quinet Club

Ed. Fernandez, "Kilabao"..... Hon. W. Hatterley

Al Moore, "The Banks of the Wabash"..... Jordan and Smythe

Accompanist, Hon. W. Hatterley.

Xylophone Solo..... E. Crane

Solo..... Eugene Allen

Cock fighting Championship..... David Sherwood vs. Challenger

Song..... M. O'Dowda

Instrumental Solo (Bagpipe)..... Bob Frazier

Song..... A. Morris

Quartet..... Deaha Brothers

Song..... Archie Robertson

Finale..... D. H. Allen, Quinet Club

AQUATIC MEN MEET

The first meeting ever held in Honolulu by swimmers took place at Prof. H. A. Woods' quarters in the Young Hotel last evening and every man who had received a notice was on hand and deeply interested in the formation of the proposed club.

Those present last evening were boys who have all made a name for themselves in the water and are the very best talent in Hawaii. This country is noted for its swimmers, so those who attended this meeting must have much ability.

The plan of the club was outlined by Jess Woods, who said in part that the meeting was called to consider the proposition of forming a swimming club in Honolulu, the object of which would be to encourage and foster aquatic sports in this city. It was proposed to organize a club of only the best talent and charter members would be chosen amongst those who had already made a name for themselves in the water. Any new members seeking admission to the club must qualify by exhibiting before a membership committee. It was proposed to charge $1 per month dues to club members and this money to go to the Hotel Baths, but each member was to furnish his own suit, a regulation suit to be adopted by the club. Annual swimming meets would be held and exhibitions whenever the club saw fit. Every member would be compelled to show up at the exhibitions, or be expelled from the club.

A committee on by-laws consisting of Geo. P. Cooke, Ernest Kopke and Jess Woods was appointed, and this same committee was to look into the matter of suits and report at the next meeting on Wednesday night.

Following are the boys who were at this first meeting: Will Dixon, Will Roth, W. L. Lyle, Will Campbell, Archie Robertson, Percy Foss, Tom Huscace, W. M. Cooper, Ernest Kopke, L. Cunha, Geo. Crozier, Geo. Fresh, Peter Barron, Carl Oss, Harry Tomlinson, Geo. Cooke, Prof. Woods and Jess Woods.

The boys at Oahu College are forming a swimming club and will put a relay team in the field. These boys have their own tank and are in a position to get all the practice they desire. The two Cooper boys are both fast men and with others at this school they can get together a hard team to beat.

The idea of putting in a swimming pool by the Rapid Transit instead of a gym, is being considered. The car people have their own well and a tank next to the club-house on Beretania street is proposed. It is argued that apparatus could be put over and around the pool and in this way they would have a gym, and a pool together. It is proposed to put in a 60-foot tank. The Transit boys are right in sport and will try to turn out some swimmers.

The Diamond Heads have sent for swimming suits in which to race their relay team.

MAY PLACE BOWLING ALLEY

Mr. F. Cross of the wireless has made a proposition to the Hotel Baths to place bowling alleys in the latter's new building on Hotel street. The proposition is looked upon with

NOW FOR THE BIG SKATE

The Queen street rink will open on Saturday next and then the whole town will roll. Most every one in the city will have wheels and the skating ice will surely take a hold on the bunch. The rink has been closed through the summer and skaters have had a chance to rest up and prepare for the winter's sport. The rink will be put in first-class shape.

Many an ambitious skater will bump the floor on the opening night.

CRICKET PAU TODAY

Teams captained by R. de B. Layard and Stanley Boardmore will await the cricket ball in the last game of the season today. The game will be played on the Maiki grounds. Players from the ships Aotea and Restorer will take a hand in the game.

Lubricant will be on hand in kegs and those having dry spots can keep cool.

SOCKER TODAY

The Diamond Heads and Mailes meet in a practice game of football at the Baseball Park today at 3:30 p. m.

NEITHER SIDE SCORES

A hard-fought gridiron battle took place on the Oahu campus yesterday afternoon and the St. Louis and High School lads struggled with the pigskin for two halves, but neither side was able to cross the line.

The H. S. team had a shade the best of it during the first half of the game. In the second half the St. Louis lads woke up and did good work.

The game was a very exciting one and was well contested.

HOBSON GIVES UP CUP

Honolulu, T. H., Oct. 23, 1906. Mr. Chas. B. Wilson, Chairman Trustees for Hawaiian Challenge Cup, City.

Dear Sir:—As I have disposed of my yacht Gladys, with which I had the honor of winning the celebrated Hawaiian Challenge Cup, September 13, 1899, I consider it proper to return the cup to the trustees, as I have no yacht at present to defend a challenge.

Would suggest that the cup be put up for a race in the near future, as we have a new yacht here, the Kapolei, which, with her time allowance under the rules for competing for the cup, might make a very interesting and close contest. Yours very truly,

T. W. HOBSON.

This is the letter written by Mr. Hobson to Chas. B. Wilson and is self-explanatory.

The Hawaiian Challenge Cup is one of the most valuable yachting prizes in Hawaii and Hobson has held the same for seven years, and now that he has sold the Gladys he has no craft with which to defend the cup.

The first race for this cup took place in 1889, the Heanani, sailed by Frank M. Hatch, winning the race. The Heanani won again in 1891. Along came the Bonnie Dundee, a five cutter from Scotland, and took the cup easily from the Hawaii and Heanani.

In 1899 Mr. Hobson put the Gladys up against the Scotch boat and took the cup in the fast time of 3 hours 16 minutes and 15 seconds. Hobson has held the cup since.

D. H. VS. BUTCHERS

Tomorrow at 2 o'clock the Metropolitan and Diamond Heads cross bats in the first game of the championship of the Winter League. It is going to be a struggle for blood and the team that wins will realize that it has been in a ball game.

The batteries that will work tomorrow are: Butchers—Bushnell and Luning. Diamond Heads—Chillingworth and Moses.

A BOWLING RECORD

A. W. Downes, a local pin knight, equaled the world's bowling record on the Ulukou alleys the other evening by rolling a perfect score. He made twelve of the prettiest strikes one would ever want to see. At no time during the game did he fail to hit the head pin perfect, assuring him of a clear sweep.

Downes uses what is commonly known among bowling fans as the "reverse curve." He starts his ball from the right-hand corner of the alley, and when within about ten feet from the pins it takes a straight line for the head pin. This is a style used by many of the Eastern bowling champions and has proved very effective.

Previous to the great score of Downes' Pete Bertelsen held the alley record with 290 pins. The alley in regulation in every respect and Downes' performance will be marked down in bowling history with the "300" games of "Sol" Hayes and Arthur Thorpe, recorded in this city before the earthquake.

ALL-AMERICAN TEAM

WRECK AT WAIKIKI

The yacht Hester L., owned by Lawrence Kerr, broke her anchor chains and drifted ashore opposite the residence of Mr. Frank Hustace at Waikiki early this morning. Tom Hustace, seeing the danger she was in, lost no time in attempting to save her and, with a few hours' hard pulling, floated her successfully.

The boat seems very little damaged and no doubt will be ready tomorrow for her usual Sunday sail.

The question of salvage will be settled later.

JEFFRIES AGAIN

Jeff has announced his return to the Land of the Scrambled Face, but the inhabitants have only worked up enough enthusiasm to greet his reappearance with wild outbursts of silence. Whenever Jeff is mentioned the list of heavens now aspiring to the title takes on the appearance of the death column.

There is absolutely nothing doing for the big fellow as far as heavy weight hospitality is concerned, and he is forced to retire to the seclusion of the alfalfa vine and pour forth the disconsolate strains of that pathetic little ballad entitled "The gentle fall is falling and the lemons are in bloom."

As the eminent philosopher Joe Padish used to say, "It takes two to make a fight," there is very little likelihood of the champion hooking up with any of the "big men" now clamoring for recognition—and mazzuma. If the adage said that it takes six to coax on the gate receipts, Jeffries might have a chance of getting a match. Any five heavies pitted against the radish-raiser would probably last long enough to make it worth while for some enterprising fight promoter, or a flock of piano-movers armed with coupling-pins lined up against Jeff would furnish an interesting spectacle for a brief moment. However, it would be advisable to have the Coroner's jury at the ringside to insure justice to the relatives of the deceased piano-movers when the cruel war was over.

Otherwise any match with Jeff as one of the principles is as far removed from the realms of possibility as a sober brooch is from Deacon Jones.

The fight fan is of necessity becoming a regular pill roller. Of late he has been hitting the pipe so hard that he is rapidly becoming a pronounced fiend. Jeff handed him the return-to-the-ring pill, he took a few puffs and saw the big farmer's hairy form bobbing hither and thither within the roped arena. Then the pipe went out. The fight enthusiast was then slipped to the Berger-O'Brien pill and he spent a few angelic moments dreaming of a beautiful Thanksgiving afternoon at Colma. Then a gust of wind came along and smothered the fumes. He is now in full possession of his faculties and realizes the truth of the old saying, "Put not your trust in the bull."

Eddie Grady now has an option on O'Brien's services for the month of November, and it is hoped that he will succeed in making a match.

A supplement issued by Lloyd's for the months of January, February and March of this year, shows that for the months mentioned four steamships and twenty-one sailing vessels were broken up or condemned, two steamers and four sailing vessels were burnt, seven steamers and nine sailing vessels were lost by collision, five steamers and eight sailing vessels foundered, two sailing vessels were lost, and for want of definite information, cannot be otherwise classified; eleven steamers and eleven sailing vessels were missing, fifty-two steamers and forty-four sailing vessels were wrecked. The totals are eighty-one steamers and 104 sailing vessels lost. Four of the steamers and twenty-four of the sailing vessels were American.

ABOUT JEFFRIES

Oakland, Sept. 27.—General Billy Delaney does not put any stock into the dispatches from Los Angeles to the effect that Big Jim Jeffries is refusing previous interviews regarding his decision to re-enter the squared circle and take on any comers that the world presents. When asked his opinion about the sudden switch this morning, Billy said:

"Some one that don't want to see Jeff make money has evidently gotten to his ear. Surely no friend would ask Jeff to sidestep an opportunity to make a fortune and without taking a chance."

"But Bill, how about the report that Mrs. Jeff is responsible for the switch?" was asked the veteran manager.

"Well," and Bill gave his gun an extra crunch with his white teeth. "Well, if Jeff will allow even his wife to interfere with his business, it is apparent in the fighting business," and he turned the conversation to his other fighter, Al Kaufman.

"Kaufman is to meet Jack Johnson, by the way," he continued. "I received a telegram from Bob Deady of Philadelphia last night, stating that he had matched Al with Johnson, the colored fellow, who many regard as the most formidable heavyweight in the world. Kaufman is taking Johnson on account of the criticism and the accusing of his backing out of a match with Burns. By meeting Johnson, Kaufman is putting himself in a position which, in the eyes of the public, puts him on the top of the pugilistic heap."
